

RUTGERS
New Jersey Medical School

Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist and General Psychiatrist

The Department of Psychiatry at Rutgers New Jersey Medical School in Newark, New Jersey is recruiting for a Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist and General Psychiatrist to join their team. The positions are available immediately, with a preferred start of July 2018.

This is an outstanding opportunity to be part of an innovative, thriving, and growing academic department of psychiatry under the leadership of its chair, Dr. Petros Levounis. Faculty positions are particularly well-suited for early career psychiatrists with an interest in academic psychiatry. Rutgers New Jersey Medical School has a culture of mentoring the new generation of leaders in the field and strongly supports faculty members' professional development.

Successful candidates will actively participate in clinical care, medical student and graduate medical education, and will have the opportunity to engage in research and other scholarly activities. Candidates must be able to obtain a New Jersey medical license and be board certified or board eligible. Academic rank will be commensurate with experience.

Rutgers New Jersey Medical School is located within an easy commute from Manhattan and many attractive New Jersey communities with excellent school systems. Rutgers New Jersey Medical School offers a competitive compensation package including comprehensive health care, generous retirement savings, and 22 paid vacation days annually. Rutgers New Jersey Medical School faculty are not restricted in the ability to participate in an outpatient faculty practice, and are in fact, encouraged to do so.

Interested candidates should send their letter of intent, resume and a list of five professional references to RutgersPsychiatry@academic-search.com. References will not be contacted without prior notification. The positions are open until filled.
