

The College of Saint Rose invites inquiries, nominations, and applications for the position of Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs (Provost/VPAA.) Reporting directly to President Carolyn J. Stefanco, and serving as a member of her leadership team, the Provost/VPAA provides leadership to the College's four academic schools and support to the faculty and administrators in Academic Affairs. The Provost/VPAA will play a lead role in the implementation of the College's Strategic Plan and the development of new programs and initiatives to ensure strength in the College's enrollment, academic programs, and financial well-being as the College prepares to enter its second century.

In the progressive tradition of the founding Sisters of Saint Joseph of Carondelet, the College welcomes men and women from all religious and cultural backgrounds. In addition to developing their intellectual capacities, members of the Saint Rose community have the opportunity to cultivate their creative and spiritual gifts in a diverse learning community that fosters integrity, interdependence, and mutual respect. The College delivers distinctive and comprehensive liberal arts and professional programs that inspire graduates to be productive adults, critical thinkers and motivated, caring citizens.

Located in the heart of historic Albany—the capital of New York State—The College of Saint Rose is a private institution of higher education located in a thriving neighborhood only 10 minutes from the Capitol Building. The Capital Region is home to more than 20 institutions of higher education and dozens of cultural and arts facilities. The College's engagement with the urban environment expands the setting for educational opportunities and encourages the Saint Rose community's energetic involvement and effective leadership in society.

The new Provost is expected to assume office on or before July 1, 2018.
