

The University of North Carolina at Pembroke Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration

The University of North Carolina at Pembroke invites inquiries, nominations, and applications for the position of Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration (VCFA). Serving as the chief financial officer, the VCFA is responsible for the oversight and management of the University's administrative and financial functions. The VCFA reports directly to the Chancellor and interacts with the Board of Trustees and other critical stakeholders.

UNC Pembroke is known for small classes, close interaction with faculty, community involvement and diversity. Its mission is to change lives through education, guided by the values of collaboration, communication, accountability, integrity, innovation, and service.

With a growing student body of over 7,100 students, UNC Pembroke is an important force for change in southeastern North Carolina. As North Carolina's Historically American Indian University, UNCP is a major source of pride to the state, members of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina, the southeastern region of the state, its hometown community of Pembroke, and alumni and friends of the UNCP community.

The new VCFA will join UNCP in a vitally important leadership role at an especially exciting time of opportunity. A complete profile of this opportunity providing a full description of the opportunity, including the leadership agenda, preferred qualifications, and application process can be accessed at: <https://academic-search.com/sites/default/files/UNCPvcfa.Profile.pdf>.

The position will remain open until filled, but only applications received by April 12, 2019, can be assured full consideration. Send inquiries, nominations and applications electronically to UNCPvcfa@academic-search.com. More information about the University is available at www.uncp.edu.
